

RSC Anti-Bribery Policy – Members

The Bribery Act 2010 imposes criminal liability on individuals and organisations in the event that employees, subsidiaries, agents or consultants pay or accept bribes in relation to the organisation's business anywhere in the world.

The Senior Management Team and Board of Trustees are fully committed to ensuring that the RSC operates as an ethical organisation. Bribery or corruption in any form will not be tolerated. We expect our employees, stakeholders, members and business partners to conduct business in a fair, honest and ethical manner at all times.

The RSC prohibits the offering, the giving, the solicitation or the acceptance of any bribe, whether cash or other inducement to or from any person or company, wherever they are situated and whether they are a public official or body or private person or company by any individual employee, agent, member or other person or body acting on the RSC's behalf in order to gain any commercial, contractual or regulatory advantage for the RSC in a way which is unethical or in order to gain any personal advantage, financial or otherwise, for the individual or anyone
